21st Annual Festival

To insure a pleasant day for all, we remind you of these official rules of the METG.

1. Photography and videotaping is prohibited during performances as it may disorient the actors.
2. No food or drink is permitted in the theater.
3. Audience members are asked to turn off all cellular phones.
4. No one may enter or leave the theater once a performance has begun.
5. Audience members with very young children are asked to sit near the main entrance of the theater so they may exit quietly if the children need to leave.
6. During a performance your attention should be on the shows. Conversations, listening to an ipod or text messaging are not appropriate.

Each play in this Festival has been approved for production by the administration of the presenting school
